We are glad of one thing: And that is that our old friend Me

And that is that our old friend Mc-Dowell, who used to stand around Ford's Hotel with a big diamond in his shirt, is now the general manager and proprietor of the Gladstone in Norfelk.

We are glad because we know that when we go to Ocean View, Virginia Beach and other places in that vicinity, we can get something good to eat.

Mack deserves all he can get out of this world, for we spent a week with him once, and he was charming as a host.

Anywiny when we got off our hed of illness and go away to recoperate, we shall call upon our rivend Mack.

We dropped into Ben Metzger's and we dropped into Ben Metzger's and met J. L. Keller, who said he was from Jentucky and was a head of the Kentucky Jow.

'I would er got here sconer," he said, "but I struck a slow train that stopped at every house, and when it came to a houble house it stopped twice."

We told him a friend of ourn, named (Paylor, told us that Joke, and he got it out, of a book.

But Keller said great minds ran in the same way sometimes, like a dog with a lin can tied to his tail.

Anyway, we took a julep, and then Ben went to dinner, and Keller went over to the table and sat down to cat some free lines.

"You can't get a square meal here," unch.

"You can't get a square meal here," ald Keller.
"Why?" he asked.
"Because the table is round."

Dutch Lehman sat down to talk at Kirkwood's with us.
"I heard a good stery on Dr. Charlie Ladenburg, the other day," he said, "He went out in the country to attend a patient, and fell in a well and got wet.
"When he came back a friend told him it served him right. He ought to have stayed in town and watch the sick, and let the well alone."
Then the waiter spilled some milk on Mr. Lehman's witho your and stillness. the well alone." hen the waiter spilled some milk ou Lehman's white vest and stillness

All hall the summer street car,
All hall the dust and heat;
All bow down to shining star
And moon that can't be beat!
Time is here for cream and cake,
For buttermilk and peas;
Young man and his girl will take
A stroll now, if you please.

We hope the new street car rules will climinate the shudy seat man, the corner seat man and the platform man. If they don't, we give notice now that we intend to step on the corns of the man who refuses to move up when we get on the cat, and we will kick his shins and do other mean things if he makes objection.

It gives us great pleasure to welcome Ham White into the fold of labor. He is now selling anti-friction metal and wants to make a contract with us for some to cause our brain to work smoother. We wish to say that we need no anti-friction metal to help us out, for we have such an intensely classic brain that is makes its own ideas with the smoothness of a cart running up a cobbie-stene alley.

Theory year about this time Kirkwood fouts a new girl on our table, and it takes all two space change to keep her in Kirkwood to the work of the continues to serve bur some with the same eclat and abouton that she has started out with we will not enter a kirk. . . . .

We feel that we must congratulate Mr. Blottner, and we hope he will see as many blue ribbons go out as the exigencies of the occasion demand. In the meantime it is up to Mr. Lerch to learn kow to roll ten pins and wear a diamond pin in his expansive bosom.

LUMBERMAN BOYCOTTED.

Injunction Against Attaching Pay of Railroad Man.

e (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., May 17.—Carpenters in the employ of R. J. Loftin, a ters in the employ of R. J. Lottin, a builder and contractor of this city, went out on a strike yesterday rather than handle lumber and material furnished by Mr. C. A. Rice, a non-union lumber dealer of this place. The trouble grew out of an action taken several months ago by the Carpenters and Johners' Union to the effect that Mr. Rice, being a non-union dealer, and been alacklisted and placed on the inflair ist, and that no union carpenter would hereafter work such material as he might furnish. An action was brought against the union for conspiracy, but was subsequently smashed by Judge Justice at the present term of court.

In Rowan Superior Court here yesterday Judge Justice granted a permanent injunction against Kluttz and Rendleman from further prosecuting Frank A. Page in the Circuit Court at Richmond, Vo. The case is of peculiar interest from the fact that a large number of Southern Railway employes, whose pay checks have been attached in Virginia, are involved, and much legal advice has been sought in the matter. builder and contractor of this city, went

CHEMICAL STOCKHOLDERS

General Meeting in New York To-day to Order Stock Issue.

To-day to Order Stock Issue.

The stockholders of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company will meet in New York city to-day to ratify the action of the directors of the company in the matter of the proposed issue of six millions of preferred stock, with the proceeds of which to retire the loan made a year ago by the company.

Nearly all the general officers of the company in this city left yesterday for New York to attend the meeting. The action of the stockholders is a foregon conclusion. The issue of preferred stock will be made to-day and the loan repail without delay.

The earning capacity of the company is now said to be greater than it has ever been before, and it is confidently expected that the excellent showing of business made by the company during the year, together with the retirement of the floating debt, will have a tendency to appreciate the value of the stock materially. The issue of preferred stock and the retirement of the loan is considered good financiering.
